Morrison Cohen LLP Announces Eric I. Moskowitz Joins Firm as Partner
Firm Continues to Attract Top Talent - 2 New Associates Join in September

New York, September 16, 2015 – Morrison Cohen LLP announced today that Eric I. Moskowitz has joined the firm as a partner in the firm’s Corporate Department.

Moskowitz has broad experience in private and public mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, securities offerings, restructurings and other complex corporate transactions and governance matters.

He regularly advises both investors and issuers in equity financings and recapitalizations and has significant experience representing funds and public companies in PIPE transactions and 144A offerings. He also counsels public companies on disclosure and compliance matters under U.S. securities laws and stock exchange regulations.

Before Joining Morrison Cohen, Moskowitz was a partner in the corporate practice group at McDermott Will & Emery.

“We are exciting about having Eric join our firm. His experience in representing clients in a wide range of businesses, including companies in the media, real estate, technology, finance, hospitality, retail and pharmaceutical industries, among others, is a perfect fit for our firm,” said Morrison Cohen Chairman David Scherl. “We are all looking forward to what we anticipate to be another important lateral addition to our partnership.”

Morrison Cohen also has hired two associates – bringing the number of new hires to 13 since the beginning of 2015. This new group continues the firm’s tradition of hiring highly skilled lawyers from some its largest and most respected competitors.

“We continue to be successful in attracting the absolute top talent as they are drawn to our model, culture and commercial approach to our practice,” Scherl said.

The firm welcomes the following new associates:

Aaron B. Lauchheimer – Associate – Business Litigation Department
Joined from Brown Rudnick LLP

Ami S. Watkin – Associate – Corporate Department
Joined from DLA Piper LLP
